

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER CLASSIFICATION / GRADING SCHEME

You can determine which grading scheme to use for a student by noting the number or letter in the CLASS column of your grade roster. Match this number or letter with the appropriate grading scheme below. Note that there are two possible graduate student grading schemes. (Graduate students enrolled in the 100-level course may be assigned grades according to the Undergraduate Student Grading Scheme.)

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT GRADING SCHEME FOR CLASSIFICATIONS:
RI, TS, CA, MT, NU AND ANY CLASS YEAR 1996-PRESENT are as follows:

A	Excellent
A-
B+
B	Above Average
B-
C+
C	Minimum Satisfactory Grade
C-
D+
D
✓	Minimum Passing Grade (Note: D+ and D- grades may not be used for courses in the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences)
P	For all xxxP courses and PSY 368 but NO others
CR	ONLY courses MUR 151 through 159 (ONLY through Spring 1995)
NC	ONLY courses MUR 151 through 159 (ONLY through Spring 1995)
E	Failure
I	Incomplete
N	No Grade Reported

GRADUATE STUDENT GRADING SCHEME: GRADUATE CLASSIFICATIONS: G, NG

A	Excellent
A-
B+
B	Good
B-
C	Poor
E	Failure
I	Incomplete
IE	Incomplete and Failure
W	Withdrawn
N	No Grade Reported

ALTERNATE GRADUATE STUDENT GRADING SCHEME:

S	Satisfactory
E	Failure
I	Incomplete
N	No Grade Reported
IE	Incomplete and Failure
W	Withdrawn

Note: Graduate Grading Schemes may NOT be mixed. All graduate students in a course must be graded according to the same system. (Reading and Research courses are excluded from this rule.)

NOTE: Dissertation courses (897, 997/899, 999) may be graded only with the ALTERNATIVE GRADING SCHEME.